

GOD OF THE MORNING

Latin feel

words & music by Rob Des Cotes

The musical score is written in G minor, 4/4 time, with a 'Latin feel'. It consists of six lines of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats. The chords are indicated above the notes: Gm, F, D, and Gm. The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across notes. The first line of music has four measures, with the first measure containing a whole rest. The second line also has four measures with a whole rest in the first. The third line has four measures with a whole rest in the first. The fourth line has four measures with a whole rest in the first. The fifth line has four measures with a whole rest in the first. The sixth line has four measures with a whole rest in the first. The lyrics are: 'God of the morning God of the evening God of the hungry God of the homeless God of the lonely God of the crying God of the sun-set God of the seasons God of the wealthy God of the righteous God of the new-born God of the dying God of our wisdom God of our freedom God of the humble God of the children God of the future God of tomorrow God of our spirit God of our reason God of the poor God of the frightened God of our rejoicing God of our sorrow We praise your Name the God of all creation We praise your Name for the love of Jesus Christ'.
